

Application Terms and Conditions

Coventry University, Coventry University Online, Coventry University College Limited (which includes CU Coventry, CU London and CU Scarborough) and/or Coventry University London Campus ('the University') will take all reasonable steps to provide the educational service set out on the website(s). The University regularly reviews the course content to make it relevant and current for the benefit of their students. There can also be a period of time between publication of course information and applications being made and processed by the University. Therefore, please check the University's current course pages on the website(s) before making an application, and before you accept an offer if one is made, to check whether there are any changes to the course you are interested in or to other services described.

The term 'you' or 'your' refers to the applicant submitting the application form to the University.

It is important that you complete all the relevant boxes and give true and accurate information. Incomplete application forms submitted without ALL the supporting documents may be withdrawn from the application process or delayed. If any information submitted is found to be inaccurate or untrue, and if any documents submitted in support of your application are found to be false or fraudulent, the University reserves the right to reject or withdraw the application, withdraw any offer made to you, or withdraw you from study.

If you are successful in your application and accept an offer on a course with us, a Student Contract ("the Contract") will be formed between you and the University. The Contract will detail all of your rights and also the obligations you will be bound by during your time as a student and will also contain all of the obligations that the University owes to you. The terms and conditions of the Contract are set out in the documents listed below. Copies and/or links to these documents will be provided with your offer letter.

- The Student Contract;
- Your offer letter (and these application form T&Cs);
- The University General and Academic Regulations;
- Intellectual Property Policy;
- Data Protection and Privacy Notice; and
- Specific course requirements as detailed on our website.

The Universities reserves the right to vary arrangements in exceptional circumstances which are beyond the University's reasonable control as detailed in the Student Contract. If using an agent, you are required to inform us and advise us in writing if you wish to change agent during the course of your application. International students may be subject to further obligations upon application.

For further details, please contact the Coventry University Recruitment and Admissions team:

UK applicants +44 (0)24 7765 2222

International applicants +44 (0)24 7765 2152

To the extent permitted by law neither the University nor its subsidiaries shall accept any liability for any loss or damage of whatever nature.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, these terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in all aspects in accordance with English law and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

DATA PROTECTION AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

How will your data be processed by the University?

Data Protection Act 2018 (the “Act”) governs how the University use and handle your personal data. The University will process the personal information which you provide in this application for the purposes of administering your application.

The University will ensure that appropriate measures are taken against unlawful or unauthorised processing of personal data, and against the accidental loss of, or damage to, personal data and that have in place procedures and technologies to maintain the security of all personal data from the point of collection to the point of destruction.

All personal data collected by the University shall be used for but not limited to the following purposes:

- To facilitate your application for study.
- To determine your eligibility for entry to the Universities
- To enable Coventry University and/or its subsidiaries to compile statistical reports
- To enable Coventry University and/or its subsidiaries to initiate your student record
- To share information with government departments including, but not limited to, the Home Office, UK Visas and Immigration, UK Embassies, local authorities and other bodies in connection with visa applications, fraud prevention, and to enable them to carry out their statutory functions

Further information in relation to how we will handle your personal information can be found in ‘Privacy Notices | UK GDPR and Data Protection | Coventry University’. It is very important that you read the Prospective Students and Applicants Privacy Notice carefully before submitting your application. This also explains your key rights under the Act, how you can access your personal information and how to complain if you have concerns.

The University will only disclose your personal data to a third party where required for lawful purposes or where you have given your consent If applicable. Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the UK and/or the EEA, we aim to ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring that appropriate safeguards are implemented.

If you have any further queries relating to applying to the University, please refer to the “contact us” section of this application portal.